

House Resolution No. 1145

Whereas, it is with tremendous pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause in their diverse legislative endeavors in order to express their sincerest Show-Me State welcome to students who are visiting the capitol in connection with organizational conferences; and

Whereas, Amy Kahl of the Zalma R-V School District is a distinguished member of Family, Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA); and

Whereas, current Region 6 historian, Amy Kahl will visit the state capitol on Tuesday, April 1, 2003, after attending the FCCLA State Conference; and

Whereas, Amy Kahl is one of sixty-four members in the Zalma FCCLA chapter under the direction of Mrs. James D. Rainey, Sr., and one of 227,000 young men and women associated with the national organization; and

Whereas, established at the national level in 1945, at the state level in 1947, and in Zalma in the early 1970s, FCCLA is a nonprofit vocational student organization for students in family and consumer sciences education courses through grade twelve in public and private schools; and

Whereas, Zalma FCCLA members during the past year have engaged in numerous projects, including honoring military veterans, sponsoring an ATV safety program for all ages of children and adults, participating in community activities, entering a variety of national programs, helping other local organizations, and attending regional, state, and national events designed to prepare them for the future; and

Whereas, students in the Zalma FCCLA take a Family and Consumer Sciences class, pay dues, and engage in such national programs as Power of One, STAR Events, and Community Service projects:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the stellar participation of Amy Kahl in the Zalma schools Family, Career and Community Leaders of America and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt commendation of her community and family oriented achievements and our best wishes for continued personal success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Amy Kahl of the Zalma R-V School District.
